FOR AIRPORT MANAGER

Port Board Authorizes Hill To Accept Applications

At last Thursday night's regular Port and Harbor meeting the commission reviewed the financial statement prepared by Moore and Powell, C.P.A.

Commissioners present were: J.E. Casanova, Louis J. Breaux, John A. Scarfone, Donald H. Landry, Oliver Friserson, Harry E. Wilson, and Augustus Elmer Jr. Also present were: Charles H. Hill, port director and commission attorney, Michael D. Haas.

The commission authorized Charles H. Hill, port and harbor director to accept applications for an airport manager, and for a fixed based operator for the airport facility.

According to Hill, two approaches to the hiring of such personnel could be taken: 1. hire an experienced and now qualified person or 2. hire a person with no experience, but capable of learning the requirements for the position, with proper schooling and training - this would entail the expense of the commission sending this person through the regular channels of required training.

With the apron of the airport basically completed, as far as the concrete work, the next step is the building and construction of the initial operational facilities: 1. light plane hanger, 2. water well, 3. space from which a fixed based operator may work.

In other action at the meeting, upon motion by commissioner Elmer, seconded by commissioner Wilson, a resolution was unanimously adopted that the commission defer action on a request by Yates and Patterson, Inc., for an extension of time on the present phase of the construction at the airport facility because of recent rain.

On a motion by Casanova, seconded by Elmer, a resolution was adopted for a committee to be appointed by the port director to study the possibility of obtaining new office space for the Port and Harbor Commission.

Arrest of Robbery Suspects May Solve Recent Crime Wave

On the heels of two new burglaries Tuesday night, January 14, Sheriff Fred Curet and his men swooped down last week on three suspects now being held in the Hancock County jail on charges of breaking and entering. Evidence collected by the Sheriff's department, the F.B.I., and local police, links the suspects to at least five of the series of robberies that have been staged in Bay St. Louis since Christmas.

Reported as being held are Joel Wilkerson, 28, a truck driver; Herbert Dorsey, 21, unemployed; and Joe Mitchell, 21, an A.W.O. U.S. Marine. All are Bay St. Louis Negroes, and Mitchell and Wilkerson are reported as having previous records of less serious offenses either here or elsewhere.

Prior to reports on Wednesday morning of entry into the offices of Dr. O.J. Mollere and Coastal Savings and Loan Association, both at 115 Main St., authorities were engrossed in checking out clues left behind at the previous theft scenes. Deputy George Rayburn meanwhile followed up reports of a car matching the description of the suspects' in the area to the rear of the post office about 1:30 a.m. Wednesday. By Thursday, with lab tests completed, the cases of Russell-Baker Finance Co., Wright-Way Cleaners, Farmers Home Administration, Coastal Savings and Loan Assoc., and Dr. Mollere, had all been cracked.

Evidence indicated that several attempts were made before entry was finally gained into Dr. Mollere's office Tuesday night. The construction of the front door defying their efforts, intruders finally on-tered through a trap door in the roof which opened directly into the dentist's office. Paneling covering concrete blocks was ripped off a partition wall separating Coastal Savings and Loan from Dr. Mollere's office. Unable to cope with the concrete, the burglars then took tools from the office to use in removing glass from a Coastal Savings and Loan window.

Norton Haas, Jr., manager of Coastal Savings and Loan discovered things amiss before actually entering his office about 9:00 a.m. Wednesday when

Better Government Committee Gives Report of Board Meet

A meeting of the board of directors of the Committee for Better City Government was held Monday night, Jan. 15, to consider questions that had been submitted by numerous concerned taxpayers, not all being members of the committee.

Question number one: What action will be taken by this committee in event the State Supreme Court should uphold the decision of the lower court?

Answer: It was agreed to await the decision of the state court before making further plans for court action.

Question number two: Why is it necessary to raise a new $750,000.00 dollars in bonds to have approximately 80 miles of streets in Bay St. Louis, when the town of Waveland at the present time has near completion approximately 12 miles of paving on a loan of only fifty thousand dollars in bonds?

Answer: It appears to us that the mayor and aldermen of Waveland are more interested in the welfare of the taxpayer than the commission Council of Bay St. Louis.

Question number three: Why is the city administration waiting for $750,000 in bond money to repair the streets when they could use the cash on hand to do the necessary repairs and cancel the $750,000.00 in bonds, thereby saving the taxpayers more than a million dollars?

Answer: We are at a loss to understand the long delay of the commission council in this matter.

Question number four: What has caused the delay by the commission council in furnishing the taxpayers an audit of city affairs as promised?

Answer: This committee has requested an audit and the responsibility rest with the commission council.

In closing the meeting it was noted that congratulations were in order to the officials of the town of Waveland for the successful operation of the affairs of the town.

Officers Attend Seminar On Alcoholics' Problems

Some 25 law enforcement officers from Hancock County and neighboring areas attended the January 9 session of the Seminar on Alcohol and Alcoholism to better acquaint themselves with the illness and to learn improved methods of the skillful, safe handling of persons afflicted with the disease. Outlining the duties of law officials in the physical handling of intoxicated persons was Frank C. Blackburn, M.A. chief, division of Alcoholism, Department of Hospitals for the State of Louisiana. Blackburn stressed the importance of recognizing that the disease is no respecter of persons and that one out of every fifteen persons who drink at all will become, or already is, in one stage or another of alcoholism, ultimately facing death, hopeless insanity, or treatment.

In attendance from the Harrison County Sheriff's office were Buck Jacobs, assistant chief deputy and Deputon J.C. McGuire, W. J. Adams, Jr., and Andrew Hixley.

Police Chief Harry Kalotich of Long Beach was present with Patrolmen Mike Rutledge, Glen Rishel, Warren Hall, and J. T. Hooker.

Waveland officers at the meeting were Donald August Dorn, deputy marshal, and auxiliary Patrolmen Sidney Bourgeois, Richard Fayard, and A. D. Dorn, Jr.

Auxiliary Patrolman Harris Boudreaux represented the Bay St. Louis police force. Present with Hancock County Sheriff Fred Curet were Deputies Earl Ladner, Charles John, Bill Carbonette, Sidney Bourgeois, Joe Bennett, Ladore Givens, N. A. Perniclaro, J. Marsh, Johnnie Wallace, and Father William Kelly, chaplain. The seminar is being sponsored by St. Augustine Seminary under the direction of Rev. Jerome LeDoux through the cooperation of the Commission on Alcoholism for Greater New Orleans and its Executive Director, Ashton Brisola.

A film entitled The Mask, telling the story of the handling of alcoholics by police, will be shown on January 16. Also featured on the program is a talk to be given by a recovering alcoholic.

All sessions of the seminar are open to the public. There is no admission charge.

Hummingbird Hums no More, One Train in, One Train Out

The day had begun Thursday like every other day since the Hummingbird made its first run on November 16, 1946. At Union Station tickets were being sold as usual, passengers boarding and settling themselves for the trip ahead, and trainmen going about their jobs in preparation for the run to Cincinnati. In the diner where country ham breakfasts and jumbo Gulf shrimp for dinner were features, the rattle of the morning's activities had begun, and the rich aroma of freshly brewed coffee wafted in the chill air.

Coupled to the end of the train that day was the private car of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who was on her way to the White House to see the President.

on May 8 the L & N was ordered by the ICC to continue operating for a period of four months in order that hearings could be conducted. At the close of these hearings in which the ICC ruled to terminate investigations, the Sept. 7 and 8 dates were set for train removal. Suit was then filed in U.S. District Court seeking to resume federal investigations of the discontinued Hummingbird, and pending proceedings have kept the train running ever since.

The youngest of the L & N's passenger family, and the first streamliner to go into service in the post-World War II era, the Hummingbird was reported operating at a $700,000 annual loss in 1967 when post office cars were taken off the train. The deficit has now risen to $1,700,000 per year, according to company spokesmen.

(Cont. from Page 1.) ment costing three million dollars. With three sleepers added in 1949, the train consisted of 14 cars in its heyday, and was drawn by 4000 electro-motive horsepower. A writer in those years noted that its distinction was not so much its 60 m.p.h. speed as its punctual performance as it hummed over a network of trestles and drawbridges along its sagging, curving Coastal route. Named by an entrant in a contest for a name for the new '46 railroad queen, punctuality no longer among its virtues, the Hummingbird normally consisted of a baggage car, a coach, a sleeper, and the diner in its last days. With the Hummingbird departing from the Hancock County landscape, the sole survivor of 22 trains serving the Coast's passenger clientele in 1924 is the Pan American, a mother L & N Cincinnati-bound train.

Daily schedules announced by Agent Yarbrough are as follows: Leave Bay St. Louis at 6:23 a.m.; arrive in New Orleans at 8:00 a.m.; leave New Orleans at 8:45 p.m.; arrive in Bay St. Louis at 10:08 p.m. The Pan American pulls the Gulf Wind which leaves the Pan American at Flomation, Ala., and goes to Jacksonville, Fla.

Clothing Care News Lingering Soil Hard On Clothes

Pressing dirty garments can damage the fibers. Microscopic studies of typical soil, such as dust and sand, show each particle has many jagged edges. These rub against the fibers. If you press them into the cloth, you aid their cutting action and imbed them further. The longer the soil remains in the fabric, the more damage it will do. Extensive research has scotched the old wives' tale that drycleaning wears out clothes. Abrasion in wear is what does that. For instance, many trousers wear out the first at the cuff or on the seat—where abrasion is greatest. They don't wear out first on the inside of the lower leg, though this part is dry-cleaned and pressed just as much as any other.

MIKE BLAIZE of St. Stanislaus participating in the first Annual Open Power Weight Lifting Meet, held at SSC last Saturday. The event was a regional affair.

Many State Records Set at SSC Campus

Many of the State Records established at this Meet, were established by local lifters, during the first annual open power weight lifting meet held last Saturday at St. Stanislaus.

The meet had eight weight classes involved. Best lifter trophies were awarded along with trophies awarded to each Weight Class. Winners of the two Best Lifter Trophies were "Doc" Rhodes, J.E.'s Gym, Bay St. Louis, and R. Murry, New Orleans Y.M.C.A.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breath, III, announce the birth of their first child, a son, Charles A. Breath, IV, January 8, at Gulfport Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Breath, the former Ellen Marion Colson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Colson of Waveland. Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Breath Jr. of this city are the paternal grandparents. The infant's father, Seaman Breath, is serving with the U.S. Navy and is stationed on board the U.S. Garrett County, on overseas duty. He is expected home in late summer.

and G. LaBorde of New Orleans Y.M.C.A. tied for first place in the 181# Class. This tie in total pounds lifted was broken by the individual body weight and was awarded to LaBorde weighing three pounds less than Blaize.

The Best Lifter Trophy is awarded to the Best Total Lift. This is decided by taking the individual body weight and multiply it by three, then subtract this total from the Total Weight Lifted; then the individual with the highest balance receives the trophy. There are two trophies for this one for 165# Class down to the 123# Class. The other goes to the Best Lifter from the 181# and Heavyweight Classes. The two divisions have four weight classes each.

This meet was the first approved Southern Amateur Athletics Union Meet held in the State of Mississippi.

Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Peterson announce the birth of their third child and first son, Scott Daniel, December 19, at Gulfport Memorial Hospital. He weighed seven pounds, 13 ounces. Mrs. Peterson is the former Sylvia Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnston Sr., of Bay St. Louis. Mrs. Eva Peterson, Waveland, is the paternal grandmother.

MR. L.J. FAVRE OF BAY ST. LOUIS AND HIS COUSIN W. C. MARTIN ARE SHOWN TAKING DELIVERY OF MR. FAVRE'S NEW CHEVROLET FROM SALESMAN JOE PALAZZO AT LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET, INC.

I shopped all over the coast and decided to go to New Orleans to buy a car that would fit my budget. I asked my cousin Mr. Martin to drive over to Louisiana with me. When I told him what I was going to do, he said "why go to New Orleans". Let's go talk to Joe Palazzo at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and I guarantee you that in one hour or so you will drive home in a new Chevrolet." This, I told him, I just couldn't believe!

Two hours later, when I was driving my new car, I'd become a firm believer in Joe Palazzo and Lamar-Lane Chevrolet. (A GERRY LANE ENTERPRISE).

National Scholarship Tests Offered at Bay High

Seventeen Bay High students have registered to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. Special permission has been granted to give this test on February 25, 1969 at Bay High.

The Merit Program combines a yearly nationwide search for talented youth with services designed to increase financial assistance for able college-bound students. To help each student derive maximum benefit from his participation in the program, various reports and guidance materials are provided for tested students and their schools.

A student who plans to enter college after spending three years or less in grades 9 through 12 inclusive may become eligible for Merit Scholarship consideration in one of the following ways:

1. By taking the NMQT in the second year of high school, if at that time he has plans for early college entrance. He will then be considered for a Merit Scholarship to be offered in his third year of high school, effective when he enters college in the fall of that year.

2. By taking the NMQT in his third year and final year of secondary school if his decision to enter college early is made too late to permit taking the test during his second year. He will then be considered for a Merit Scholarship to begin in the fall of his second college year.

There is a $1.25 test fee for each student.

JOHN D. LUXICH AND LAMAR-LANE SALESMAN HERB BARON ADMIRE JOHN'S NEW CHEVROLET AFTER COMPLETING DEAL.

I have lived in Bay St. Louis all of my life and recently completed two years of service in the U. S. Marine Corps. Several of my friends bought cars from Herb Baron at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and suggested that I talk to Herb as I had decided to buy a new car.

Herb fixed us up with a fine Super Sport that both my wife and I liked very much, and we are more than satisfied both with our car and the deal we received at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet.

County Farmers Must Sign ACP Aid in January

The sign-up for the Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP) will begin January 20 and continue through Friday, January 24.

The ACP is a program under which the government each year pays more than a million dollars to the nation's farmers of the nation the soil, water, woodland, and individual farms across the nation. Last year the ACP cost-sharing was in Pearl River and other counties participated in the ACP. Cost-shares were made available to the producers for the ACP contribution in the amount of $88,317. This represents approximately 80 percent of the cost of the practices — the remainder was borne by the farmer.

The ACP is open to all producers who as owner, operator, or tenant have a controlling interest in a farm.

To perform a cost-sharing practice, the farmer files a request with the county ASCS office for ACP cost-sharing before carrying out the practice.

Additional information concerning the ACP is available at your county ASCS office.

Hospitable Town Hosts Vietnam Bound Marines

The small California town of Brea, Cal. has become a home-away-from-home for Vietnam bound Marines.

The project of each family entertaining at least two Marines in their homes before overseas departure was begun by Rev. Charles Harlow of the Brea Congregational Church, but is strictly non-denominational, as members of all faiths participate.

Lance Cpl. Charles C. Carver, son of Mrs. Oswald Carver and the late Mr. Carver of Bay St. Louis, was the first local serviceman known to have participated in this program.

His mother received a letter from Mrs. Jerry Jecklin, Jr. stating that her family had Charles and a friend as their Thanksgiving dinner guests. She went on to describe the activities of the day, saying how much the Jecklins had enjoyed entertaining Charles and a fellow Marine.

Mrs. Carver says that even though her son is now on active duty in Vietnam, it gave her much comfort to know that he spent his last holiday in the states with such fine people in a town that has shown kindness and hospitality to boys of all faiths.

OFF

THE EXPANSION in the field of winter has never seemed quite as apparent as it does along about now. All that remains of the holiday season is a few faded news notes that we're still picking up here and there. Even the streets are almost people-less on this particularly dreary Saturday, and the few who brave the winds and even some small pellets of sleet, to venture out-of-doors are so bundled in warm garments their faces are all but unrecognizable.

OF COURSE, we really shouldn't give in to our loathing of cold weather to such an extent that we fail to report that only a couple of days ago the temperatures were happily in the mid-70's, and chances are that the latest cold front will have disappeared by the time we go to press—at least we certainly hope so!

LACKING ANY REALLY earth shaking events upon which to report, this might be an excellent time to clear up one little misunderstanding. Almost daily someone asks the cost of inserting a news item of one sort or another. Most frequently we're asked about charges on engagement or marriage announcements, births, etc. The answer is that there is no charge whatsoever. We're most happy to print news of the community, and are especially interested in who is getting married, has had a baby, taken a trip, given a party, etc. Pictures too, are always welcome and will be returned to the contributor just as soon as they have been published. We would very much like to have time to contact more of our readers personally, but please don't wait for us to call you—just pick up your phone and dial 467-5474, write us a note or drop in at the Echo in person and let us, and your friends and neighbors know what's new with you!

SPEAKING OF readers, we're very grateful to one who simply signed his or her name Anon, Jr. He, or she sent a photostatic copy of eight Thoughts for the New Year including the one which we mentioned in a November column: "I shall pass this way but once", etc, and we do thank you very much, whoever you happen to be!

LILLIAN AND JOE Griffin hosted one of the larger New Year's Eve open houses and we're just now getting around to mentioning the affair. The Griffins' lovely, new Beach Blvd. home was beautifully decorated and as Lillian is famous for her culinary skill, it goes without saying that much delicious food was served along with a variety of beverages. Promptly at midnight everyone went out upon the lawn for the firework display, then toasted 1969 with real, homemade egg nog.

TWO EAGERLY AWAITED first babies arrived last week. ELLEN AND CHUCK Breath's son, to be christened Charles A. Breath, IV, was born at Gulfport Memorial Wednesday, Jan. 8, weighing seven pounds, nine ounces. Elaine and Joe Colson are the elated maternal grandparents, and Mary and 'Junior' Breath, the equally elated paternal grandparents.

CATHY AND CHARLIE Carter's heirless sort of surprised them by putting in her appearance about a week earlier than expected and was born on her father's birthday, Thursday, Jan. 9. Catherine Cristin weighed in at five pounds, seven ounces at exactly 9:31 a.m. at Gulfport Memorial. Mary and Charlie Carter were too excited over their first grandchild to remember to even mention her arrival to your reporter, and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O.W. Brown, drove down from Flora, Miss., for the blessed event.

SORRY TO HEAR that fire, thought to have begun in the exhaust fan of their electric range, did much damage to the Victoria Lane home of 'Lady' and 'Boss' Pearson and Shirley and Arch Whitlow. Prompt response from our local fire departments confined most of the destruction to the kitchen, but a number of valuable possessions including some irreplaceable china, were destroyed in the blaze.

FLU, whether it be Hong Kong, Asiatic or just one of the plain old fashioned variety, continues to keep a sizeable portion of the populace out of commission.

CLARA AND GEORGE Sesszen both had severe cases, but Clara rallied in time to take off for St. Louis on Saturday.

FRANK TRAPANI left his home for the first time in a week Saturday afternoon.

BOB HANEY spent a week confined to his Water Street home in Waveland. He was suffering from a very bad cold.

JIMMY SYLVESTR was also among the ailing last week. A N D R E ARCENEAUX wasn't feeling at all well Friday, but he refused to place the blame for his malady on a virus.

PAT (MRS. JOE) VIGUERIE is due a get well wish having undergone surgery at Hancock General last Tuesday.

MRS. O.H. PILKEY gets a similar greeting as she too had surgery last week.

BETTY (MRS. ARTHUR, JR.) SMITH has her hands full, as does her mother-in-law Viva (Mrs. Arthur, Sr.) Smith. Both of their husbands are patients in Hancock General and Angela (Betty's daughter and Viva's granddaughter), who is officially known as Mrs. Glen Rose, is in Gulfport Memorial awaiting the arrival of her first baby, or at least was as of Saturday.

SEVERAL PROMINENT local gentlemen have now become authors and handed out some elaborately bound volumes to friends as Christmas gifts. The books, entitled What I Know About Golf, were 'written' by John McDonald, Jay Clark, Bob Hamilton, Bill Trimble and Paul Kimbrell. None, however, anticipate winning Pulitzer prizes or similar accolades as the pages within the covers were absolutely blank!

MR. ED ARCENEAUX was on the sick list last week, but we're glad to report that he's now feeling up to par again.

KANCH KETCHUM, otherwise known as Dec Elliott, was sidelined for almost two weeks, but didn't let illness prevent him from writing his ever popular weekly column.

LUCKY JILL and Gerald Gex escaped to Mexico City for a brief vacation last week.

CONGRATULATIONS are in line for Chris and Dave Burch who observed their 19th wedding anniversary last Wednesday.

Miss Fay Manasco

Manasco-Lang

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Bens announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter Leslie Fay Manasco, to Arthur M. Lang, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lang of San Antonio, Tex.

The wedding will be solemnized at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 25, at St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Harper, Tex.

Miss Manasco is a graduate of Bay High School and attended the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

Her fiancé is employed as a C.E.S. Representative for the Olivetti-Underwood Company.

Joan Dickinson

Feted at Party

Joan Dickinson celebrated her ninth birthday Saturday with a party at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickinson.

Following the cutting of her birthday cake, which was decorated with a nosegay of pale yellow spun sugar roses and white ribbon, party refreshments and games, the group enjoyed a movie at Star Theatre.

Helping Joan celebrate the occasion were Elizabeth Lagarde, Katrina Kersane, Mary Ann Sciana, Dianne Martinovich, Susie Kergosien, Marina Favre, Leslie Wolfe, Tina Aime, Lisa diBenedetto, Mary Beth Gex and her sisters Amanda and Trisha Dickinson.

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M.J. Phillips Sr. at their Ramoneda Street home were his sister, Mrs. Claudia Smith of Mobile, Ala. and his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. George Gerschow of Honduras. Also visiting with them for a day were Mr. and Mrs. Ainsworth Kidd of Honduras.

Two Honored at Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. John Koenen celebrated with a jolly birthday dinner Sunday at their home honoring their daughter Angela, who was 18, his mother, Mrs. Koenen Sr., of Kila and Mrs. Koenen's father E. E. Breland.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Breland, Mrs. Dora Breland, Mr. and Mrs. Koenen Sr., Larry Koenen, Miss Nell Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. William Breland and children, Clark, Mark, Kerrie, Keith and Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Macchick and sons Paul and Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Breland and daughter Kim, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. O'Quinn and daughter Pamela of Sibley, Miss Becky Dickerson, Picaune, and the Koenen Junior's sons Wade and Randy.

BRIDGE WINNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Garner were first place winners in Monday night games played by Bay-Waveland Bridge Club at the Garden Center. Amelia Scatfield and Mildred Means took second place honors.

Storybook Theme Of Tea Party

Alice in Wonderland was the theme for Mary Ann Schmitt's sixth birthday tea party Sunday afternoon at the Bayview Street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmitt. The party was held in a room decorated with a black and white theme.

Favors were given and candy filled tea cups and cookies in the shapes of rabbits, clocks and hearts.

Games were played and Jams Wade won the prize for breaking the tea-cup plate.

last Thursday she slipped on the deck of the ship and fractured her left shoulder, returning home Monday encased in a most uncomfortable cast.

GLADYS AND JOHN McCordle (he of the Mississippi Highway Patrol), welcomed their second daughter on Friday. Little Laura Lee was born at Gulfport Memorial at 1:45 p.m., weighing seven pounds, eight ounces.

REV. JAMES KELLEY, S.V.D., was released from Hancock General Hospital Monday after spending three days there. He was suffering from dehydration following, or during some type of flu.

AMONG THOSE dining at Haverly's Sunday night were Winnie Pennington and Edwina Mogabgab; Ruby and Osmond Blaise; Mrs. Ed Canady and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hindelang. The Hindelangs had just returned from an extended visit in the Crescent City.

BRIDGE PLAYERS, the Bay-Waveland Duplicate Club has openings for new members. Anyone interested may join the group which meets at 7:30 p.m. each Monday at Bay-Waveland Garden Center on Leachard Ave.

STELLA GEX is in line for a get well greeting. She's been a patient at Oceanair, where she underwent a series of tests.

FEDERAL JUDGE Dan Russell was among those attending the reception for the Astronauts while in Miami. The purpose of Dan's trip was primarily to attend the Super Bowl game.

Party Honors
Douglas Necaise

Douglas Necaise celebrated his ninth birthday at a dinner party given at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Victor Necaise, Jr. on December 23.

Family members attending included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bivens; Mr. Victor Necaise, Sr.; Vickie, Rosanna and Angelina Necaise; Mrs. Mary Fricke; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fricke and son David, and Douglas' brother David Necaise.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Pope had with them for the holidays their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. George Dickson and daughter Mary Lou of Burlington, Iowa.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS A LONG THE WAY - Heavily laden oyster boats riding low in the water as they return to docks after a long day's toiling; A teenage twosome walking hand in hand along the otherwise deserted beach; bright orange flames of a woods fire almost competing with the sunset in scarlet brilliance and the menacing sounds of twigs cracking as embers leap from tree to tree.

Seaside Pageant

Called for Coast

Nationally sanctioned American Teenage Pageant is the oldest such event for girls now being held in the Gulf Coast area. The 10th year, winner of the Gulf Coast event, will be eligible for the Mississippi State Pageant to be held in Jackson, Miss., on the Coast, with the winner of the regional pageant in the national pageant at Atlantic City, N.J., in early September. Last year's state affair was staged in Jackson, with the winner being Mary Lou Duplain of Belzoni, who went on to become a semi-finalist in the national pageant. First and second runners-up in Mississippi last year were Debbie Gillis of Brookhaven, and Jane Ann Sharp of Hattiesburg.

There is no swimsuit or talent competition involved, and girls appear attired in simple party frocks. Judging is on the basis of looks, personality, poise, achievement, service in the community, which includes church work, etc.

Band Director Kramer emphasized that Miss American Teenage Pageants are not "beauty contests." He pointed out that while beauty is a factor, nevertheless, it was the many other qualities which counted most.

Judges will be from areas far removed from the coastal area, at least two being from Louisiana. Director and Master of Ceremonies will be Ray Kruger of Lake Charles, La., mid-south director for Miss American Teenage Pageant.

A full program of entertainment will be featured, on the March 1st show, including several numbers by the Gulfport High School Commodore Marching Concert Band.

Mrs. Barbara Volking, secretary-treasurer of the Band Parents Club, said tickets to the pageant will be priced at only one dollar. She said all club members and school band members will be selling tickets during the coming weeks, as will the contestants, with the girl making the best sales record to be presented with a US Savings Bond during course of the pageant.

This will mark only the second year that Miss American Teenage has been presented in Mississippi, but pageants are now being set up in several other communities in the state.

Judges will first study the entry forms, and then interview each contestant individually on pageant day, following a rehearsal. Then, at a later "cock party" in the high school, the contestants will be able to meet judges on an informal basis. Final awarding of points, then comes, as each girl parades in the pageant. The field will be cut in half, and then ten girls will be chosen as semi-finalists.

Maureen Stamm and Barry Burke, and Lynn Phillips and Cham Dallas are two couples who are dating steadily these days.

Jean and Emile had a terrific time during the holidays. Randy and Richard Tracey, Mike Pindexter and Barry Lynn Favre are among those who have returned to military bases after visiting their families during the holidays.

Chris seemed to be enjoying himself at a recent party. What started the two disagreements at the Showboat.

Matt's been doing the usual thing, but someone thinks he'd be happier on another campus. June and Wade really had a great big wonderful holiday. Was it really Paul who was all wet last Monday?

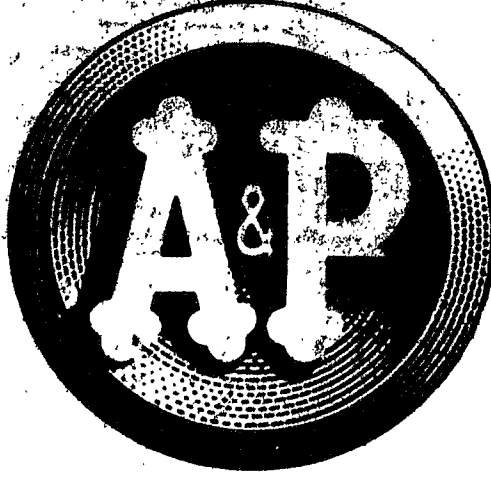

Jane was on TV recently. Boy, the questions they asked her!

Chris (Edga Edga's brother) and Joan were married in New Orleans on Jan. 7.

J.V. and R.T. really enjoyed New Year's Eve. Looks like the "pig-tails" worked fine, but looks like they didn't make the big decision.

Pam and Frankie also had a great time last Friday night. A special thanks to Gussie from a friend!

Hunting is practically a must of the past year. With most seasons closing, the past weekend saw only a few things to hunt. Woodcock, quail and rabbits, and that kind of hunting ends on January 31st.

Hunting this season has been a put and take game. Take a few birds and game and give a lot of effort without too much results.

As said before, this year has been the worst for down hunting. Deer hunting has been at its best in quite a few years and will improve as time goes by.

Goose and duck hunting has been fair to middling. Some ducks and geese were killed locally and best hunts were made out in the Louisiana Marshes as usual.

Rabbit hunting was fair. With no shining allowed we should have thousands of rabbits from now on. Rabbit hunting is getting to be like quail and deer hunting. Keep and feed dogs the year round, just to get in a few months of expensive hunting.

Enough on hunting. Thank goodness, our sportsmen can now turn to fishing. God bless the scaly creatures who give us so much pleasure the year round. Duck and geese hunters going to the Louisiana marshes report some great catches of red fish and speckles. Anyone familiar with this section knows that there are plenty fish to be caught in Biloxi Bayou, Three and Nine Mile Bayous, Free Mason, North Island and further down to Chandeller Islands where deep sea fishing is tops.

August Raunet made a mistake last week. Went to the marshes hunting and didn't take any fishing tackle. Watched the other guys catch big red and speckle. One party had 18 reds that weighed 10 lbs. each.

Fish have had a break Al Mercier, like a lot of us, has been on the sick side but is OK now. Al usually catches his share of fish.

Dr. Don Boles is another of those guys who hunt and fish. Dr. gets his share of fish any old time. He has a home on Bayou Talia.

SPORTSMEN OF THE WEEK

Norman and Mrs. Renshaw are among our best hunters and fishermen. They hunt everything, catch all kinds of fish and spend most of their time in the outdoors. Golf is another of their favorite sports.

We think this is the story of the week and that Dr. Emile Bertucci is the sportsman of the week.

Doc invited 22 of his friends to close the dove season on Sunday at a dove shoot at his farm North of Fenton. Those attending from New Orleans and some having homes on the coast from Bay St. Louis to Biloxi were: Richard E. Walton, Elmo Hahn, Reuhl Reichert, Jr., Charles Armoult, John Voght, Jr., Ira Delesdernier, Johnny Bacon, Harry Rainold, Dr. Ed. Brown, Dr. Fred Vaughan, Dr. Don Boles, Charles Rossner, Bryan Bertucci and Chaille Bacon.

Also Leon Hall and Don Munro of Biloxi, Doc Elliott, August Raunet and son Ronnie Bay St. Louis and Dr. Harry Pflug, Dr. Robert Pflug and Lynn Blanchard of Chalmette, La.

Doc Bertucci completed the day's activities with a supper at his home "Tidewater" at Fenton. Doc's wife Shirley, a hunter in her own right took care of the entertaining and supper. Shirley killed the limit of ducks Saturday while hunting with the Doctor.

Of course, refreshments were served and a good time was had by all thanks to Emile and Shirley, wonderful hosts.

Dr. Don Boles is justly proud of his Labrador retriever. This dog retrieves ducks, doves, woodcock and what have you, on command. How easy can you make hunting? Doc is a fisherman deluxe, too.

made at 19-20, 21, and 22-41 in the boys' variety game. Sophomore center Ricky Page led the Hawks with 22 points while Eddie Ladner contributed 10 points and Guy Ne-calse and Greg Shaw had 10 points each.

Domie Caldwell and Mike Benigno scored 19 and 13 points in that order for Bay High.

SPORTS

Bay High Graduate Mike Ne-calse was high scorer for William Carey College in a recent basketball contest with Pensacola.

Wendell Ladner, former Hancock North Central basketball star, was voted outstanding player in the Christmas tournament at the University of Southern Mississippi.

Year End Report

W.A. (Fred) Curet Sheriff and Tax Collector, Hancock County

It is my intention to report to you, the people of Hancock County, on the operation of the Sheriff and Tax Collector's office. This was a pledge I made to you during the campaign, and I am pleased to publish this, the first of so many reports.

The year was marked with many advances in the law enforcement, as well as in the office of Tax Collector. You will note that we have been able to turn over to the Hancock County General Fund over $16,000.00. This has been accomplished with the cooperation of the Justices of the Peace, and is a result of fines imposed less fees and jail expenses.

With the assistance of the Board of Supervisors we were able to put the vehicle license fees on computers. I think this is a long step in the right direction in modernizing our tax collection methods. It is our hope that during 1969 the land tax rolls will be placed on computers.

The door to my office is always open. I not only invite, I welcome anyone with constructive criticism and advice to come forward. Working together we can move our county forward.
